

FOURTH ANNUAL
half-day symposium on Diaspora, Islam and Gender
MCRI Project

Women's Voices from the Middle East

Thursday, March 10th, 2005

Time: 2:00 PM- 5:30PM

Harry Crowe Room

109 Atkinson

York University

EVELYNE ACCAD

Author and Professor Emerita, University of Illinois and Lebanese American University

"From Bombs to Breast Cancer: The Politics of Sexuality for Arab Women".

SHAHRZAD MOJAB

Director, Institute for Women's Studies and Gender Studies, University of Toronto, Associate Professor, Department of Adult Education and Counseling Psychology, OISE/University of Toronto

"The Particularity of 'Honour' and the Universality of 'Killing': A Feminist Pedagogy"

AMINA SHERAZEE

Staff lawyer for Downtown Legal Services, the University of Toronto's student legal clinic, and LLM candidate at York University's Osgoode Hall Law School

"Muslim Women's Human Rights in Canada and in Muslim countries"

DORIT NAAMAN

Assistant Professor, Queen's University, the Alliance Atlantis professor of Film Studies

Documentary: "Home, Bitter/Sweet Home" (2003)

For More Information Please Contact Lesley Forrest at 416-736-2100 Ex: 33835

Or visit: http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/~diaspora/index_new.htm

Sponsored By:

Dean's Office, Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies

Certificate in Anti-Racist Research and Practice and School of Social Sciences,, Atkinson

Centre for Feminist Research; Center for Refugee Studies, York University